PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Widmer QD 2000 Bank Depository The Widmer QD 2000 is a secure and quick bank receipt lobby depository. The QD 2000 bank receipt depository helps improve customer service, especially at peak traffic hours, when deposits are at their highest. FEATURES It stores bank receipts conveniently and safely. Envelopes and chutes are easily accessible, even from a wheelchair. Customers receive a validated receipt for their deposits or payments instantaneously. This machine is very easy you use. A. Simply prepare the envelope, seal and detach the receipt. B. Place the envelope in the chute. C. Place the receipt in the validation and after validation, remove it and retain as a record. The record prints the bank identification number, year, date and time. This machine uses a tri colored ribbon that prints the record in three colors to inhibit duplication. Custom modifications are available to fit your needs. SPECIFICATIONS Dimensions 42 H x 20 W x 20 D 115 V, 60 HZ, A.C. or 220 V, 50 HZ, A.C. Shipping Weight 185 lbs. Ships by Truck.
