PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

The Adler Royal Alpha 9180SC Cash Register features 99 departments, programmable with 12 character descriptions that categorize sales. Its 1600 programmable price look ups ensure pricing accuracy and record the number of items sold. The alphanumeric two station printer prints both customer receipts and journal tapes. The alpha two line operator display shows item descriptions during sales registration and alphanumeric prompts in program mode for easy set up. The department keys are labeled with letters saving time for the user. The store logo and separate commercial message can be programmed up to 5 lines of 20 characters each. Up to 30 clerk identifications can be programmed to monitor the sales of individual employees. The automatic tax computation can program up to 4 tax rates. The Adler Royal Alpha 9180SC Cash Register removable cash drawer has 5 slot bill and 6 coin trays and is made out of a heavy duty metal for extra protection. The Adler Royal Alpha 9180SC Cash Register can also program secondary charge keys to separate multiple credit cards.
